Gen. Grant is still living but very low.

The next meeting of the Governor and Council will be on the 27th inst.

"Now the only person that is in the way of reading a better book than this," exclaims Philip Gilbert Hamerton over a choice volume. "Thousands of others, lovers of good books, rejoice in the same way, daily, over the choice books of the 'Library of the World,' published at such marvellously low prices that he who chooses can become a 'Gentleman' of letters, and acquire the columns. They are worth reading.

HEBROX.

A large number of trees have been tapped in this vicinity, but it does not seem very encouraging.

Bert Maxin, who was cut badly in the leg just below the knee week before last, is getting well, but it will be a long time before he is out again.

An Easter sermon was preached by the pastor at the church, Sunday morning, and a very large number of the usual Sunday-school congregation remained, and though some were expected to have parts were not present it passed off very pleasantly. A solo was sung by Miss Hattie P. Bailey, president of the scholarship society, and several scholarship students in the choir; two solos by Wallace Cushman; one by our chorister, H. A. Cushman; and several pieces by the male quartette, so the service was a very successful one.
